JEWBILEE for Teens and Their Parents

Teenagers are welcome to attend the Chancellor's Address and go to any classes. They and their parents are especially urged to attend one of the two "Faith in the Face of..." classes during the morning session. During the afternoon session, Oheb Shalom's Rabbi Mark Cooper will lead teen/parent breakout discussions of Personal Faith in the Modern World.

Morning Session

11:15am-12:15pm – Choose one of the following six sessions

Faith in the Face of Science

Are modern scientific understandings in conflict with, or compatible with, Jewish religious thought? Speaker: Rabbi Steven Bayar, Congregation B'nai Israel of Millburn.

Faith in the Face of Evil

How can a good God allow human beings to suffer and to commit atrocities? Speaker: Rabbi Amy Small, Congregation Beth Hatikvah of Summit

How to Read Scripture

The words are sacred; but they can mean very different things to different readers. Speaker: Professor Alan Cooper, Provost of The Jewish Theological Seminary.

Jewish Genealogy –Part 1

Oheb Shalom's in-house expert, Mark Gordon, will describe how to go about tracing your ancestry.

End of Life Issues

At some point in every family, loved ones become terribly ill; questions arise and decisions need to be made. Speaker: Rabbi Moshe Abramovitz, Jewish Hospice Service.

Judaism and The Arts

Lisa Dennison, Chair of Sotheby's North and South America, will describe and illustrate how Jewish themes have been addressed by a wide variety of artists.

Complimentary Luncheon
12:30pm – 1:30pm
