Privacy and Disclosure: A Jewish Perspective

What does Judaism teach us about the ethical issues of the right to privacy, intrusion and disclosure of personal information? How do Jewish values inform such issues as videotaping and photography, the internet, spying on employees, and concerns about national security? We'll study Jewish texts and discuss these issues in depth.

Wednesday, May 2 and Wednesday, May 9, 8:00-9:30 P.M.
